About Le Cerisier

An independant, renovated cottage on the central courtyard at La Boulinerie. This house has its own terrace with barbecue and garden furniture overlooking the gardens and children's play area.

Ground Floor - The large, spacious ground floor accommodates a fully-equipped stained pine kitchen with a gas hob, an electric oven, microwave, dishwasher, washing machine and large fridge/freezer, kettle, coffee maker etcâ€!

There is a large dining table with seating for 10, and a sitting area with sofas, television, DVD player and free WiFi access, coffee table and a woodburning stove for the winter months.

A charming ground floor bedroom - created from the old poulailler (chicken house) - with a double bed, chest of drawers and wardrobe, leads off the living room and is ideal for grannies or older teenagers!

First Floor - On the first floor there is a double bedroom with plenty of clothes storage and small double windows overlooking the courtyard and the cherry trees after which this house is named.

The twin bedroom has a delightful small window to the courtyard, chest of drawers and a wardrobe.

The third upstairs room - a children's dormitory room with three single beds, and chests of drawers, is well lit with a velux window.

Le Cerisier is a charming house retaining many character features from its previous incarnation such as exposed stonework and old beams. Both pretty and practical house it is a great for a comfortable family holiday home.

Bed linen is included and all beds are made up on arrival.

Towels are not included.
