Place de L'Eglise

Brittany / Cotes d'Armor / Pedernek

About Place de L'Eglise

This town house on the main square in the heart of a typical Breton village will surprise you with the different parts of its huge and secluded rear garden. It provides spacious and practical accommodation for a family holiday and can be rented for 4 or 7 persons and a baby. Good base to explore the variety of the Pink Granite Coast.

Immediately to the back of the house is a decked area for dining al fresco, overlooking a sunny lawn and enormous fig tree. This part of the garden is fully enclosed and suitable for small children. Through the little gate is the heather garden and orchard, with wilder parts beyond. Here you can enjoy aperitifs under the shade of the apple trees.

Indoors a large French-style dining room opens on to the well-equipped and practical kitchen, with a modern fan oven and induction hob. On the other side of the cool hall is a pretty blue and yellow sitting room and there is a ground floor bedroom at the rear, which can sleep three in two bunk beds and a single bed. There is a shower room downstairs, and another one upstairs, located between the two large double bedrooms. These each have a double bed, and look out over the square and the lovely old church.
