St. Roch No. 1

Languedoc Roussillon / Aude / Villelongue

About St. Roch No. 1

Situated at the sunny south west edge of a quaint village with a special atmosphere is this recently renovated, spacious and bright holiday home. From your terrace, sitting under the lovely old linden tree, you will enjoy the beautiful view of the vineyards and the hills down there. It is very quiet here and due to its position, the terrace can be used even on sunny days in early spring or late autumn.

There is a cosy bar in the village, open on Thursdays and Fridays. Shops are at a distance of a 10 minutes car drive.

Street level: Large living (with wood stove, TV, internet access), open kitchen plan (fully equipped with fridge, micro wave, toaster, electric cooker etc.), view of vineyards.

First floor: large double bedroom, bathroom (with shower and sauna), separate toilet.

Garden level: second (summer) kitchen with dining corner, washing machine and freezer. It stays pretty cool in here in summer. Access to terrace and wooden stairs lead to the garden below (shared with house next door, that means there is no fence in the middle).
