Auvergne / Cantal / Vieillevie

About La Maison du four

On the southern tip of Cantal overlooking the Lot Valley , La Maison du Four cottage sleeps 4 and offers luxury self catering accommodation, peace and solitude all year round.

Bought as a ruin, the cottage has been skillfully & beautifully renovated to retain original features including exposed walls, beams and a Cantou fireplace. The thick stone walls and traditional lauze roof ensure cool interiors in the summer and warmth in the winter.

The spacious living area is comfortably furnished, bright and airy with stunning views from its south facing window.

A woodburning stove in the Cantou fireplace and radiators make the cottage ideal for a winter break. Logs are provided as are books and DVDs for those idle moments! Wi-fi and British Freeview television are also available.

The fitted oak kitchen is equipped with oven, hob, fridge, microwave, dishwasher and washing machine.

The upstairs bedroom has exposed beams, vaulted ceiling, a king-sized bed, storage space and ensuite bathroom with corner bath, wc and hand basin.

The bedroom on the lower ground floor has twin beds and an ensuite shower room with wc and hand basin. Glazed doors lead onto a small, south facing patio.

Outside, the cottage has 2 south facing terraces with patio furniture, BBQ and stunning views over the beautiful Lot Valley.

All towels and bed linen provided.

We regret that smoking and pets are not permitted.
