About La Blache

La Blache is situated on a traditional, tastefully renovated farm called Domaine Les Blaches, lies on the edge of the extensive Ardèche Natural Park.

This holiday home (70 m²) is on the first floor of the former barn, which was built from big and small natural stones, which is characteristic for the Ardèche farms.

Because the ground floor, still in use as a barn, was partially built into the mountain, you can enter the house on the mountain side through different doors. You will then find yourself in the large living room (SAT-TV and a sound set) with dining place and open kitchen (with fridge, a gas cooker and a microwave oven).

Even from behind the sink you can enjoy the beautiful view.

There is a bathroom with shower, wash basin and WC, as well as a washing machine.

This house sleeps 6, divided over 3 rooms.

In bedroom 1 is a double bed, in bedroom 2 two single beds and in bedroom 3 bunk beds.

The combination of the chestnut floor, the stone walls and the maintenance of the very old roof construction give a very special atmosphere to this house.

There is a terrace with garden furniture and deck chairs, invisible from the other house, so your privacy is guaranteed.

Children can live their life to the full here in building their 'own holiday home' in a tree.

There are also a swing and a ping-pong table.

Domaine Les Blaches is an absolutely quiet and peaceful spot, on a distance of about 3 km of the medieval village Désaignes. This village has some 1100 inhabitants and lies between Lamastre and St. Agrève. Valence is abt. 50 km away.
