About Gite Pigeonnier

We have discovered a beautiful, peaceful and relaxed corner of rural France which we would love to share with you.

Our gîtes, which are set within our 5.5 acre smallholding, are finished to a high standard and we hope will provide everything you could possibly need for a fantastic stay. If there is anything we have forgotten, or if you simply need some advice or have a query, we are on hand to help - but please be assured that your privacy will be respected at all times.

A welcome basket upon your arrival will contain some essentials to get your holiday off to a relaxing start and will of course include a bottle of French wine. Our guests will have the opportunity of sharing our home grown produce, according to season, and fresh free range eggs from our own chickens - if they feel like laying that day!

All bed linen and towels are provided.

If you really must check your e-mails, free WIFI is available.

There is ample space to park your car, and once it is parked up we have a ladies bike and a gents bike for you to use to explore the surrounding area, if you so wish.

We are not able to accept pets in our gîtes, and would prefer if you refrained from smoking inside (thank you).

Due to the nature of the area, there are numerous steps around the grounds and into the gîtes and, as such, this accommodation is not suitable for guests with limited mobility.

Further information on our website, please contact us for details.
