

Grenier

Brittany / Morbihan / Langoelan

About Grenier

La Grenier (6): has three bedrooms that sleep 6. It was converted from the original grain store and dates back to 1697. A large French window leads to a cosy beamed open plan lounge with two archways leading into a separate dining room / fitted kitchen.

Ground floor is open plan in the traditional Breton style. Roof beams, trusses and original stone walls are exposed throughout. The kitchen is well equipped with a full gas cooker, microwave, washing machine, fridge, coffee maker. Heating by wood burning stoves and electric wall heaters.

From the lounge is a feature open tread staircase leading to a double bedroom, two twin bedrooms, and family shower room. All bedrooms are carpeted.

Private garden with BBQ and garden furniture. The cottage is self catering and is equipped to a very high standard. Outside: the cottage has its own private garden with BBQ and garden furniture. There is fishing at Lac de Dordu which is adjacent to the gardens and is stocked with large common carp, large pink, tench and perch. Fishing permits can be purchased from the owners on a daily or weekly basis which allows fishing in all the lakes in Morbihan. The 30' x 20' shared solar heated swimming pool (open mid-May - mid-Sept), has a surrounding patio and sun loungers.
